What's new in WCRL Rally Obedience?

Presented by Joan Klingler, WCRL Judge

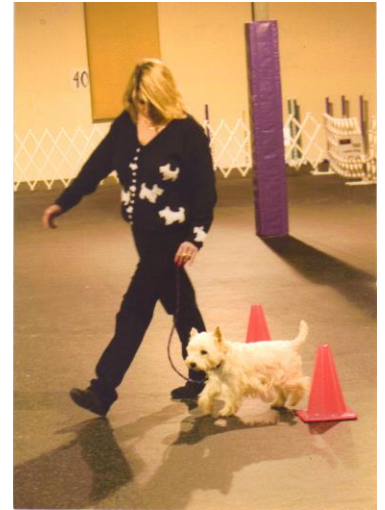

In 2018, due to the updated WCRL regulations, the WCRL Rally Course takes on a new life! WCRL Rally Obedience is as much a test of obedience training as it is a continuous exhibition of the relationship between dog and handler as they work through the course. New signs, new judging rules, & new course design requirements will be in place starting on January 1, 2018.

In this 3-hour session, Joan will review all changes, with special attention on the new signs and how to complete them correctly. Participants will have the opportunity to try the signs with their dogs in a mini-course set-up.

Participants may bring one well-behaved dog to work during the session. Dogs must be quietly crated in the annex or crated in your car. Limit of 12 working participants. $40 to participate, $20 to audit.

Sunday, October 29, 2017

- 9 am to noon
- To be held in the heated annex on rubber matting.

Directions are on the website at www.bvtrainingcenter.com
