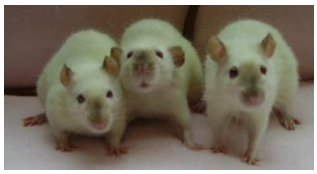
SEPTEMBER
Barn Hunt
Training Sessions

Introduction to Barn Hunt: For all breeds and sizes of dogs that are new to the sport of Barn Hunt or who need a refresher course. Dogs will be exposed to the rats in both a cage and in a tube. Time will be spent preparing the dog to enter trials at both the Instinct and Novice Levels. Individuals will also be given instruction on how to be a rat wrangler.



Wednesday, Sept. 16: 4 to 5:30 PM and 6 PM to 7:30 PM
Thursday, Sept. 17: 10 AM to 11:30 AM
Limit 6 dogs per instructor for the 90 minute session $35 per dog

Finding the Rat Sessions: Having trouble determining when your dog has located a rat or just a tube of bedding? These sessions will allow you to observe your dog at rat and bedding tubes to allow you to praise your dog at the rat and help you to better identify the type of mark given by your dog. If needed, time will also be spent in teaching the dog how to complete more advanced tunnels.

Wednesday, Sept. 16: 1 to 2 PM. 2:30 to 3:30 PM
Thursday, Sept. 17: 1 PM to 2 PM, 2:30 to 3:30 PM, 4 to 5 PM and 6:30 PM to 7:30 PM
Limit 3 dogs per 60 minute session $25 per dog

Directions are on the website at www.bvtrainingcenter.com Training will be held indoors. All checks are cashed upon receipt. No refunds-all BVTC policies will be in effect. Pre-Payment is required to hold a spot.

All dogs (mixed and purebred) and all sizes are eligible to compete in Barn Hunt. No prior experience is required. Rule review will be included in the sessions. Training is to prepare dogs for the Barn Hunt Association competition.
