Nancy Gyes is a pioneer in dog agility. She has been involved in dog training sports for the last 30 years. She was active in competition and pet obedience, tracking and behavior counseling for pet owners before discovering agility in 1990. A few of her career highlights: Nancy was on the AKC World Team 7 times; 4 years with Scud and three years with Riot. Riot earned a silver medal in the standard class at Worlds in 2001 and the Gold in the standard class in 2002. Riot was the USDAA National Champion twice and the AKC National Champion twice as well. Her border collies Scud and Wicked also won USDAA National Championships. Nancy's border collie Ace won the Bronze Medal in 2009 at the European Open Championships and in 2011 Nancy was on the EO team that earned a bronze medal for the Team event. Nancy has been on the European Open Team 5 times, and in the finals 4 of those years. Nancy has been the Coach of the American Kennel Club World Team since 2006, she is experienced working with many breeds having put an ADCh on 3 mixed breeds, 2 mini dogs, as well as 8 border collies and in every jump height from 12 to 30 inches. She has also put 15 MACH's on her various border collies Scud, Riot, Wicked, Ace, Scoop and Pie.
