Judy Kolva has trained and trialed with American Cocker Spaniels, working Cocker Spaniels and Border Collies. My dogs have earned many titles in both AKC and USDAA competition. My dogs have been team finalists at the USDAA World Cynosport games from 2006-2010 and in both Grand Prix and steeplechase finals at the Cynosport games. At the 2009 AKC nationals, her young dog Opal was the top dog from Pennsylvania in the team competition and led the Pennsylvania team to its first ever state finals with a 2nd place finish. In the 2010 AKC nationals, Opal was once again the top dog from Pennsylvania, and Ty was 2nd place in the state team competition. They once again led Pennsylvania to a medal finish for the second year in a row and has made AKC finals. Judy is currently competing with Working Cocker spaniels. has also been an alternate on the AKC EO team two different years has earned 4 MACH's and his Agility Grand Champion title. Vette has made invitationals two years and Porsche this year. Porsche was the 2022 12 inch invitational champion. Both dogs qualified for AKC nationals 2021 and 2022. Vette was a finalist in the 12 inch class in 2022. In 2012, I became an agility judge for the American Kennel Club and was approved to judge for UKI agility.
